Homes abroad

Most people begin their search for a home on the Internet, not least when they are looking for homes abroad. So, when you advertise on the Homes Abroad page at Bovision.se you will definitely reach the right target group.

Do you work with the sales or rental of homes abroad? No matter which, you can in a very easy way show your homes on one of Sweden's most popular home brokerage sites – Bovision.se.

A HANDY WAY TO ADVERTISE

The easiest way to show your homes on our site for homes abroad is through Autoexponering. We acquire automatically information from your website and make it searchable at Bovision.se. You do not need to register the information in multiple places and you save time. With Autoexponering, we link to the descriptions on your website, so your own description with your graphic profile also appears on Bovision.se.

THIS IS WHAT YOU HAVE TO PROVIDE

In order for us to be able to show your homes, certain information must be available in the hit list on your website. The information that must be available is: Property ID, home type, country, area or city, image and link to the description, if possible also fields such as price and number of rooms.
